

Course Catalog - Fall 2006

Chemical and Biomolecular Engineering

597 Special Problems credit: 2 to 16 hours.

Individual work on problem-oriented projects not included in theses. This could be research, engineering design, or professional work in chemical and biomolecular engineering which has educational values. The work must be done under the supervision of a staff member with the approval of the department head. Approved for both letter and S/U grading.