History

HIST 220   Traditional China  credit: 3 hours.

Historical background to the modern age, tracing the Chinese state and empire from the earliest times until 1644 A.D. Basic political, social, and economic patterns; cultural, intellectual, and technological achievements; and China’s impact on Asia and the world. Same as EALC 220.

This course satisfies the General Education Criteria for a:
Cultural Studies - Non-West
Humanities – Hist & Phil

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CRN</th>
<th>Type</th>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Days</th>
<th>Location</th>
<th>Instructor</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>49157</td>
<td>Lecture</td>
<td>A</td>
<td>11:00 AM - 12:20 PM</td>
<td>TR</td>
<td>1027 - Lincoln Hall</td>
<td>Chow, K</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Hist&Philosop Perspect, and Non-Western Cultures course.
Same as EALC 220