Physics

PHYS 582  General Field Theory  credit: 4 hours.
Standard techniques of field theory as used by experimenters and theorists; relativistic quantum mechanics of a single particle; Lagrangian field theories, perturbation theory, and calculation of lowest-order processes; introduction to Feynman diagrams and higher order processes; examples taken from quantum electrodynamics, solid-state and elementary particle physics, and many-body theory. Prerequisite: PHYS 581.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CRN</th>
<th>Type</th>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Days</th>
<th>Location</th>
<th>Instructor</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>30717</td>
<td>Lecture</td>
<td>A</td>
<td>02:00 PM - 03:20 PM</td>
<td>MW</td>
<td>158 - Loomis Laboratory</td>
<td>Leigh, R</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>