MBA 500 Issues in Business credit: 0 hours.
MBA students are faced with a wide variety of issues in the workplace. This course will introduce and encourage discussions related to careers transitions, leadership, ethics, and uses of technology in the workplace. Guest lecturers and experts in their field will discuss different approaches to these issues and give students the opportunity to discuss strategies and practice skills that will prepare them for the business environment. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. Approved for S/U grading only. Prerequisite: Co-requisite MBA 501 and MBA 502.
