Class Schedule - Fall 2018

Gender and Women's Studies

GWS 201  Race, Gender & Power  credit: 3 hours.

Presents multiple windows into perceptions and perspectives upon gender, sexuality, power, identity and culture, and their multiple intersections. The concept of race in its many manifestations is used to examine relationships of self to society, state institutions and cultures. By paying greater attention to race and power, nuanced understandings of the way the gender systems are maintained, patrolled and formed will be examined. Topics may include: film, media, technology, culture, religion, identities, sexualities. Same as SOC 201.

This course satisfies the General Education Criteria for a Cultural Studies - Western course.
