Class Schedule - Fall 2018

Horticulture

HORT 180  Medicinal Plants and Herbology  credit: 3 hours.
The use of cultivated and wild plants in medicines and health products according to Eastern and Western medical traditions.
Consideration of herbal medicine use from ancient times to the present, important medicinal chemicals produced by plants, and the evaluation of plant chemical products as potential human medicines. Same as CPSC 180.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CRN</th>
<th>Type</th>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Days</th>
<th>Location</th>
<th>Instructor</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>71069</td>
<td>Online</td>
<td>OLP</td>
<td>ARRANGED</td>
<td>-</td>
<td>-</td>
<td>Riggins, C</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Restricted to NDEG: Horticulture Online-UIUC.
This course is restricted to the Online Horticulture Certificate Program. This is not open to on-campus students.