Class Schedule - Fall 2019

Geography

GEOG 101  Global Development & Environment  credit: 3 hours.
Introduces geographical perspectives on environment and development studies with case studies drawn from Africa, Asia, and Latin America. Investigates the origins of the global South in relation to the global North, especially the historical and contemporary processes driving environmental, economic, and cultural change.

This course satisfies the General Education Criteria for a:
Cultural Studies - Non-West
Social & Beh Sci - Soc Sci

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CRN</th>
<th>Type</th>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Days</th>
<th>Location</th>
<th>Instructor</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>67829</td>
<td>Online</td>
<td>ONL</td>
<td>ARRANGED</td>
<td>-</td>
<td>-</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>